The Quantitative Economic Analysis Master specialization delivers high-quality academic training geared towards research in economics. It provides an excellent knowledge of advanced quantitative methods, including innovative methods for processing large datasets. The program serves as an excellent foundation for PhD programs or paves the way to a career as a professional economist in the private as well as the public sectors.

OVERVIEW

- 232 hours
  - Two semesters, of 12 weeks each

- 30 STUDENTS

CURRICULUM

To consult the curriculum list, click here.

- Advanced microeconometrics
- Advanced macroeconometrics
- Big Data and machine learning
- Contract Theory & Mechanism design
- Advanced Game Theory
- Behavioral Economics
- Industrial Organisation
- Market design & Information design
- Labor economics
- Health economics
- Economics of Education
- Energy policies
- Market finance
- Business cycles and stabilization policies
- International macroeconomics and trade
- Monetary and banking economics

OUR STRENGTHS

- Acquire an in-depth academic training covering a broad range of economic issues, and learn about the decision-making process of public and private economic stakeholders
- Strong international recognition of the degree, due to several assets: A graduate program aligned on international standards, with high reliance on mathematical modelling and quantitative methods, in English
- Benefit from a diversified curriculum with a strong content in advanced quantitative methods, including innovative techniques for the processing of large datasets and computer programming of complex economic problems

TARGET COMPETENCIES

- Acquire an advanced knowledge in different fields of contemporary research in economics, along with a deep understanding of the fundamental economic concepts
- Acquire a strong capacity to understand and implement the most advanced quantitative tools for the processing and analysis of datasets
CAREERS

GRADUATE PLACEMENT:
Enroll in a doctoral program, in France and abroad
Professional economist in the public and parapublic sector (government, central banks) and international institutions (IMF, OECD, ...)
Professional economist in financial institutions and other private businesses

INTERNATIONAL

- All classes delivered in English.
- Worldwide exchange programs with the 24 member universities of the QTEM international network (Quantitative Techniques for Economics and Management), and with Bocconi University (Italy)

APPLY

PREREQUISITES
- Students from France and abroad who have obtained the 60 ECTS credits from the first year of the master in Quantitative Economics or from the first year of another Master from the Paris-Dauphine University, an institution from PSL or another institution considered as equivalent.

ADMISSION PROCEDURE
- Apply online on the e-candidat application: candidatures.mso.dauphine.fr

LEARN MORE

Training coordination:
Lise PATUREAU
Contact: lise.patureau@dauphine.psl.eu
Career center of Paris-Dauphine University
scuio@dauphine.psl.eu

www.dauphine.psl.eu

OTHER SPECIALIZATIONS FOR MASTER 2ND YEAR

→ Digital Economics